

Case Study

Vanuatu Chamber of Commerce and Industry (VCCI)

Pandanus Consulting has been contracted to provide a variety of communications and project management services to the Chamber of Commerce and Industry. This has included graphic design for the Economic Outlook Report, social media campaigns related to COVID-19 response, design, project management & implementation of UN funded PHOENIX project supporting women's business & leadership skills and the design & establishment of Business Support Services including Workshops, Business & Life Coaching & the new Giv Han Long Bisnis program which is the mentoring program.

